How do you engage in pastoral care for those beyond your worshipping community?

Describe your worshipping community's involvement in either the wider Church or geographical region.

4 Cs pantry, Good Shepherd Homeless Shelter ministries, Pender County Schools support ... School supplies and books, Holiday Food Baskets for over 20 families, and our Angel tree ministry providing many gifts to families identified as needy, ecumenical worship, gatherings and civic events, Farm Ministries

Tell about a ministry that your worshipping community has initiated in the past five years. Who can be contacted about this?

Our involvement with Good Shepherd began when Ron Abrams' son spoke to the congregation about the work they do at the Center. We have regular collections for different needed items such as socks in October, personal hygiene items, and hat, gloves and mittens

What is your practice of stewardship and how does it shape the life of your worshipping community?

Our goal of Time, Talent and Treasure encourages parishioner involvement, parishioner sharing of their experiences at Holy Trinity, Sunday preaching series to expand knowledge, and a section of our monthly newsletter devoted to stewardship.

What is your worshipping community's experience of conflict? And how have you addressed it?

Thankfully this has not been a major issue. When things do occur we seek out those responsible, encourage them to have a dialog on rectifying the issue and provide solutions to avoid further problems.

What is your experience leading/addressing change in the church? When has it gone well? When has it gone poorly? And what did you learn?

We readily welcome everyone who is interested in growing in Christ, needs a safe space and a place of solace and strength. We fully support the LBGQT community as well as female priests.
