

The Episcopal Foundation of the Diocese of East Carolina, Incorporated

Governing Principles of the Diocese of East Carolina

OUR CALL: Proclaim the Gospel, celebrate the Sacraments, reconcile humanity and God.

OUR EXPECTATION: The glorious transformation of lives through Christ.

OUR VOCATION: To love the Lord with all our heart, soul, mind, and strength, and to love our neighbors as ourselves.

OUR MEANS OF MINISTRY: Discipleship. Our missionary outposts (parishes) will be places where disciples are formed and, in turn, continually make new disciples.

The Foundation of the Diocese of East Carolina supports the work of the Diocese and each congregation in their work to meet the “Four Challenges for Each Missionary Outpost.”

THE FOUR CHALLENGES FOR EACH MISSIONARY OUTPOST

- 1 Each missionary outpost should begin one new way to routinely reach out to those who do not know Christ. The primary focus of each missionary outpost should be ministering to those who have yet to enter our doors.
- 2 Each one of us is an evangelist. Find someone who does not belong to a church and invite that person into the life of your parish and the fellowship of Christ.
- 3 Make your worship transforming and accessible, especially for youth, so that when people leave they are thirsting to come back for more. Make worship a time of miraculous expectation in which people come to church expecting to be renewed and transformed by the power of the Holy Spirit.
- 4 Practice radical hospitality. Besides worship, your newcomers’ ministry must be the most important ministry in the parish. Create an atmosphere in each parish in which clergy and lay people feel free to take risks for the sake of the Gospel. Focus not so much on what the parish has done in the past, but on what God will do in the future.

The governing principles of the Episcopal Foundation of the Diocese of East Carolina, Inc.

The Foundation was chartered in 1957 to organize an endowment that would be a source of funds for several purposes. These purposes are outlined in the charter as amended in 1971. Included in the duties of The Board of Directors of the Foundation is the consideration of financial assistance for the purposes set forth in the charter. Grants will be considered based on compliance with the guidelines stated in the following paragraph taken from the charter.

“This Corporation is formed by the Diocese of East Carolina of the Protestant Episcopal Church exclusively for religious, education, and charitable purposes, including the purpose of holding, managing and investing property of the Diocese of East Carolina, either temporarily, for a specified or indefinite time, or permanently, and the purpose of providing (1) funds, the income from which is to be used for the promotion of new work in the Diocese of East Carolina and for the development of the religious, educational and charitable work of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of East Carolina, (2) funds to be used for making loans to parishes, missions, diocesan institutions and church organizations for capital improvements and (3) funds for capital grants to parishes, missions, diocesan institutions and church organizations for capital improvements.”

With every effort going toward being a benefactor and good steward of Foundation resources, the focus of The Foundation is toward grants. The Board hereby establishes a mechanism by which goals for our grantees and their accountability for these goals can be implemented.
